

RE: Transnet encourages its workers to go vote

[Johannesburg; 08 May 2019] Transnet SOC refutes media reports that it has barred its workers from exercising their right to vote.

A communique was sent to all Transnet employees the day before the elections to remind and encourage them to go and vote today, 08 May 2019.

Given the nature of Transnet's ports and rail operations and their contribution to the economy, the company, through planning took all its shift workers into consideration. This was done through the re-arranging of rosters to accommodate all shift workers as per norm during any other public holiday.
