- 7.2. The Issuer shall be entitled, but not obliged, to form, or procure the formation of, a trust or special purpose company (or more than one), or appoint, or procure the appointment of, an agent or agents to hold any such rights of security for the benefit or on behalf of such Noteholders.

8. INTEREST

8.1. Fixed Rate Notes

- 8.1.1. Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding Nominal Amount (or, if it is a Partly Paid Note, the amount paid up) from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Fixed Rate of Interest so specified, payable in arrears on the Fixed Interest Payment Dates in each year up to and including the Maturity Date.
- 8.1.2. The first payment of interest will be made on the Fixed Interest Payment Date next following the Interest Commencement Date.
- 8.1.3. Except as provided in the Applicable Pricing Supplement, the amount of interest payable per Note on each Fixed Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount, provided that:
- 8.1.3.1. if an Initial Broken Amount is specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement, then the first Interest Amount shall equal the Initial Broken Amount specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement; and
- 8.1.3.2. if a Final Broken Amount is specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement, then the final Interest Amount shall equal the Final Broken Amount.
- 8.1.4. Interest will be calculated in accordance with the Interest Rate Period as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement for JSE listed Fixed Rate Notes, however in any other instance, such interest shall be calculated by applying the Fixed Rate of Interest to each Specified Denomination, multiplying such product by the applicable Day Count Fraction, as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest Sub unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half such Sub unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

8.2. Floating Rate Notes and Indexed Interest Notes

8.2.1. Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note and Indexed Interest Note bears interest on its outstanding Nominal Amount (or, if it is a Partly Paid Note, the amount paid up) from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement, and such interest will be payable in arrears on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement. Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period which expression shall, in these Terms and Conditions, mean the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date) up to and including the Maturity Date.

8.2.2. Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of the Floating Rate Notes and Indexed Interest Notes will be determined in the manner specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

8.2.3. Minimum and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the Applicable Pricing Supplement specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of any such Interest Period determined in accordance with the above provisions is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest. If the Applicable Pricing Supplement specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of any such Interest Period determined in accordance with the above provisions is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be limited to such Maximum Rate of Interest.

8.2.4. Determination of Rate of Interest and Calculation of Interest Amount

The Calculation Agent, in the case of Floating Rate Notes and Indexed Interest Notes will at, or as soon as is practicable after, each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest and calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Floating Rate Note and Indexed Interest Note in respect of each Specified Denomination for the relevant Interest Period, and the Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer of the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period as soon as is practicable after calculating the same. Each Interest Amount shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to the Specified Denomination, multiplying such product by the applicable Day Count Fraction and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest Sub unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half a Sub unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

8.2.5. Interest Determination, Screen Rate Determination including Fallback Provisions

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the Applicable Pricing Supplement) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this sub paragraph, ISDA Rate for an Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by such agent as a notional under an interest rate swap transaction if that agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the most recent ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (a) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement;
- (b) the Designated Maturity is the period specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement; and
- (c) the relevant Reset Date is either (i) if the applicable Floating Rate Option is based on ZAR-JIBAR-SAFEX, the first Day of the applicable Interest Period; or (ii) in any other case, as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

For the purposes of the above sub paragraph Floating Rate, Floating Rate Option, Designated Maturity and Reset Date have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject to the provisions below, be either:

- (a) if the Relevant Screen Page is available,
 - (i) the offered quotation (if only one quotation appears on the Relevant Screen Page); or
 - (ii) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations,

(expressed as a percentage per annum) for the Reference Rate which appears on the Relevant Screen Page as at 11h00 (or as otherwise specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement) (Johannesburg time) on the Interest Rate Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the Applicable Pricing Supplement) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such offered quotations; or
- (b) if the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of (i) above, no such offered quotation appears or, in the case of (ii) above, fewer than three such offered quotations appear, in each case as at the time specified in the preceding paragraph, the Calculation Agent shall request the principal Johannesburg office of each of the Reference Banks to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately 11h00 (Johannesburg time) on the Interest Rate Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of such offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Calculation Agent; or
- (c) if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined by applying the provisions of (a) and (b) above, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Calculation Agent determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Calculation Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks offered, at approximately 11h00 (Johannesburg time) on the relevant Interest Rate Determination Date, deposits in an amount approximately equal to the Nominal Amount of the Notes of the relevant Series, for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate to prime banks in the Johannesburg inter bank market plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any). If fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such offered rates, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent as the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the rates for deposits in an amount approximately equal to the Nominal Amount of the Notes of the relevant Series, for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, quoted at approximately 11h00 (Johannesburg time) on the relevant Interest Rate Determination Date, by the Reference Banks plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any). If the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

If the Reference Rate from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes is specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement as being other than ZAR-JIBAR-SAFEX, the Rate of Interest in respect of such Notes will be determined as provided in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

8.2.6. Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amount

The Issuer will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be announced on SENS and notified to the CSD and/or every other relevant exchange or authority as soon as possible after their determination but in any event no later than the 3rd (third) Business Day before the relevant Interest Payment Date. Each Interest Amount, Interest Payment Date or effective Rate of Interest, as the case may be, so announced and/or notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period or a change in the effective Rate of Interest. Any such amendment will be promptly announced on SENS, notified to the CSD and/or every other relevant exchange or authority and to the Noteholders via SENS in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices) and at least 3 (three) Business Days prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date.

8.2.7. Certificates to be Final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 8.2 (Floating Rate Notes and Indexed Interest Notes), by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of wilful deceit, bad faith or manifest error or proven error) be binding on the Issuer and all Noteholders and in the absence as aforesaid no liability to the Issuer or the Noteholders shall attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

8.3. Dual Currency Interest Notes

In the case of Dual Currency Interest Notes, the Interest Rate or Interest Amount payable shall be determined in the manner specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

8.4. Mixed Rate Notes

The Interest Rate payable from time to time on Mixed Rate Notes shall be the Interest Rate payable on the form of interest bearing Note (be it a Fixed Rate Note, Floating Rate Note, Index Linked Note or Dual Currency Note) specified for each respective period, each as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement. During each such applicable period, the Interest Rate on the Mixed Rate Notes shall be determined and fall due for payment on the basis that such Mixed Rate Notes are Fixed Rate Notes, Floating Rate Notes, Index Linked Notes or Dual Currency Notes, as the case may be.

8.5. Accrual of Interest

Each Note (or in the case of the redemption of part only of a Note, that part only of such Note) will cease to bear interest (if any) from the date of its redemption unless, upon due presentation thereof, payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused. In such event, interest will continue to accrue at the Default Rate specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement until the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Note have been paid, or, in respect of uncertificated Notes, the date on which the full amount of the money payable has been received by the CSD and/or the Participants and notice to that effect has been given to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices).

8.6. Applicable Business Day Convention

If any Interest Payment Date (or other date), which is specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Applicable Business Day Convention, would otherwise fall on a Day that is not a Business Day, then, if the Applicable Business Day Convention specified is:

- (a) the Floating Rate Business Day Convention, only applicable to unlisted Notes, where such Interest Payment Date (or other date) shall be postponed to the next Day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event: (i) such Interest Payment Date (or other date) shall be brought forward to the first preceding Business Day and (ii) each subsequent Interest Payment Date (or other date) shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the number of months, or other period specified as the Interest Period in the Applicable Pricing Supplement, after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date (or other date) has occurred; or
- (b) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date (or other date) shall be postponed to the next Day which is a Business Day; or
- (c) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date (or other date) shall be postponed to the next Day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date (or other such date) shall be brought forward to the first preceding Business Day; or

Any reference in these Terms and Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable, any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to interest under Condition 11 (Taxation).

10. REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

10.1. Redemption at Maturity

- 10.1.1. Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled as specified below, each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer in the Specified Currency at its Final Redemption Amount plus interest (if any) specified in, or determined in the manner specified in, the Applicable Pricing Supplement on the Maturity Date.
- 10.1.2. The Issuer shall be entitled to extend the Redemption Date of all or part of the Nominal Amount Outstanding of Extendible Notes. If such option is exercised by the Issuer in respect of part of the Nominal Amounts Outstanding of such Extendible Notes, then the Issuer shall redeem such portion of Notes not so extended at the Partial Redemption Amount and subject to any further extension, the redemption of the balance, being the Nominal Amount Outstanding will be extended to a date specified in the Applicable Pricing supplement or otherwise notified to Noteholders. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer is not obligated to treat all Noteholders of Extendible Notes in the same manner.

10.2. Redemption for Tax Reasons

Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer at any time (in the case of Notes other than Floating Rate Notes, Indexed Interest Notes or Mixed Rate Notes having an Interest Rate then determined on a floating or indexed basis) or on any Interest Payment Date (in the case of Floating Rate Notes, Indexed Interest Notes or Mixed Rate Notes), on giving not less than 30 (thirty) nor more than 60 (sixty) Days' notice to the Noteholders prior to such redemption, in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices) (which notice shall be irrevocable certified by 2 (two) authorised directors of the Issuer and include particular of the relevant change pursuant to Condition 10.2.1 (Redemption for Tax Reasons) below), if the Issuer, immediately prior to the giving of such notice, is of the reasonable opinion that:

- 10.2.1. as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of South Africa or any political sub division of, or any authority in, or of, South Africa having power to tax, or any change or amendment of such laws which becomes effective after the relevant Issue Date, the Issuer is or would be required to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 11 (Taxation); and

- 10.2.2. the requirement and/or any adverse effect cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 (ninety) Days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay or may become subject to the payment of such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due. Notes may be redeemed by the Issuer in accordance with this Condition 10.2 (Redemption for Tax Reasons) in whole or in part. A redemption in part may be effected by the Issuer:
- 10.2.2.1. notwithstanding that such partial redemption may not entirely avoid such obligation to pay additional amounts as provided for or referred to in Condition 11 (Taxation); and
- 10.2.2.2. mutatis mutandis in the manner described in Condition 10.3 (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer), provided that the references to the giving of notice therein and to the Minimum Redemption Amount and the Higher Redemption Amount (both as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement) therein shall be disregarded for such purposes.

Notes redeemed for tax reasons pursuant to this Condition 10.2 (Redemption for Tax Reasons) will be redeemed at their Early Redemption Amount referred to in Condition 10.4 (Redemption at the Option of the Senior Noteholders), together (if appropriate) with interest accrued from (and including) the immediately preceding Interest Payment Date to (but excluding) the date of redemption or as specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement. Before the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition 10.2 (Redemption for Tax Reasons), the Issuer shall deliver to the Transfer Agent a certificate signed by two duly authorised officers of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred, and an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

10.3. Redemption at the Option of the Issuer

If the Issuer has specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement to having an option to redeem, the Issuer may, having given not less than 30 (thirty) nor more than 60 (sixty) Days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices) or unless otherwise specified with the Applicable Pricing Supplement, redeem all or some of the Notes (to which such Applicable Pricing Supplement relates) then Outstanding on the Optional Redemption Date(s) and at the Optional Redemption Amount(s) specified in, or determined in the manner specified in, the Applicable Pricing Supplement, together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Optional Redemption Date(s).

Any such redemption must be of a Nominal Amount equal to or greater than the Minimum Redemption Amount or equal to or less than the Higher Redemption Amount, both as indicated in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, the Notes to be redeemed (Redeemed Notes) will be selected individually by lot, in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by Individual Certificates, and in accordance with the Applicable Procedures in the case of Redeemed Notes which are uncertificated, and in each case not more than 30 (thirty) Days prior to the date fixed for redemption (such date of selection being hereinafter called the "Selection Date").

In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by Individual Certificates, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices) not less than 15 (fifteen) Days prior to the date fixed for redemption. The Aggregate Nominal Amount of Redeemed Notes represented by Individual Certificates shall bear the same proportion to the Aggregate Nominal Amount of all Redeemed Notes as the Aggregate Nominal Amount of Individual Certificates outstanding bears to the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes Outstanding, in each case on the Selection Date, provided that such first mentioned Nominal Amount shall, if necessary, be rounded downwards to the nearest integral multiple of the Specified Denomination and the Aggregate Nominal Amount of Redeemed Notes which are uncertificated shall be equal to the balance of the Redeemed Notes. No exchange of the relevant uncertificated Notes will be permitted during the period from and including the Selection Date to and including the date fixed for redemption pursuant to this sub-paragraph and notice to that effect shall be given by the Issuer to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices) at least 10 (ten) Days prior to the Selection Date.

Holders of Redeemed Notes shall surrender the Individual Certificates, if any, representing the Notes in accordance with the provisions of the notice given to them by the Issuer as contemplated above. Where only a portion of the Notes represented by such Individual Certificates are redeemed, the Transfer Agent shall deliver new Individual Certificates to such Noteholders, as the case may be, in respect of the balance of the Notes.

10.4. Redemption at the Option of the Senior Noteholders

If Senior Noteholders are specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement as having an option to request the redemption of Senior Notes, such Senior Noteholders may exercise such option in respect of such Senior Notes by delivering to the Transfer Agent, in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices), a duly executed notice (Put Notice), at least 30 (thirty) Days but not more than 60 (sixty) Days, prior to the Optional Redemption Date.

For redemption in part, the redemption amount specified in such Put Notice in respect of any such Senior Note must be of a principal amount equal to or greater than the Minimum Redemption Amount or equal to or less than the Higher Redemption Amount, each as indicated in the Applicable Pricing Supplement.

The redemption by the Senior Noteholders of uncertificated Senior Notes shall take place in accordance with the Applicable Procedures.

The Issuer shall proceed to redeem the Senior Notes in respect of which such option has been exercised in accordance with the terms of the Applicable Pricing Supplement, at the Optional Redemption Amount(s) and on the Optional Redemption Date(s), together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Optional Redemption Date(s).

In the event that the redeeming Senior Noteholder is the holder of an Individual Certificate, then such Senior Noteholder shall (attached to the Put Notice) deliver the Individual Certificate to the Transfer Agent at least 1 (one) Business Day prior to the Optional Redemption Date for cancellation, failing which the Put Notice shall be invalid. A holder of an Individual Certificate shall, in that holder's Put Notice, specify a bank account in South Africa into which the redemption payment amount is to be paid.

If, prior to such due date for its redemption, such Note becomes immediately due and payable or if upon due presentation payment of such redemption monies are improperly withheld or refused, the Transfer Agent shall post such Note by uninsured post to, and at the risk of, the relevant Noteholder (unless the Noteholder has otherwise requested and paid the costs of such insurance to the Transfer Agent at the time of depositing the Notes) at such address as may have been given by the Noteholder in the Put Notice. At the end of each period for the exercise of such option, the Transfer Agent shall promptly notify the Issuer of the Nominal Amount of the Notes in respect of which such option has been exercised with it and the serial numbers in respect of any Notes represented by an Individual Certificate.

The delivery of Put Notices shall be required to take place during normal office hours to the Issuer and Transfer Agent. Put Notices shall be available for inspection at the Specified Offices of the Transfer Agent.

Any Put Notice given by a Senior Noteholder holder pursuant to this Condition 10.4 (Redemption at the Option of the Senior Noteholders) shall be irrevocable except where after giving the notice but prior to the due date of redemption an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing in which event such Senior Noteholder, at its option, may elect by notice to the Issuer delivered at least 1 (one) Business Day prior to the Optional Redemption Date to withdraw the notice given pursuant to this Condition 10.4 (Redemption at the Option of the Senior Noteholders) and instead to declare such Senior Note forthwith due and payable pursuant to Condition 17 (Events of Default).

The Issuer shall have no liability to remedy any defects in any Put Notice or bring any such defects to the attention of any Noteholder.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TRANSNET SOC LTD

All information pertaining to, inter alia, the Description of Transnet SOC Ltd , as set out in the Information Statement, which will be amended and restated from time to time, will be incorporated by reference in, and form part of this Programme Memorandum, and will be available on the Issuer's website at <https://www.transnet.net/InvestorRelations/Pages/DMTN.aspx>.

REGULATION

Capitalised terms used in this section headed “Regulation” shall bear the same meanings as used in the Terms and Conditions, except to the extent that they are separately defined in this section or this is clearly inappropriate from the context.

Set out below is a summary of material information concerning the regulation of Transnet’s business. This description does not purport to be a complete description of all applicable laws and regulations and should not be read as such.

Transnet is a state owned company whose sole shareholder is the Government of South Africa. As a public entity, Transnet is governed by many laws and regulations. This section discusses certain material laws and regulations that govern the everyday activities of Transnet and requires that Transnet be issued with certain operating licences.

Legislation Affecting Public Entities

Transnet is a state-owned rail, pipeline, terminal and port company which is formed in terms of the Legal Succession to the Legal Succession to the South African Transport Services Act, 1989 (the Legal Succession Act). As a result, Transnet derives its mandate and power from the Legal Succession Act and its constitutional corporate documents (e.g. memorandum of incorporation). Transnet consists of five operating divisions or business units; namely: (i) Transnet National Ports Authority; (ii) Transnet Pipelines; (iii) Transnet Freight Rail; (iv) Transnet Rail Engineering; and (v) Transnet Port Terminals (TPT). Subject to the description of some of the divisions further below, these above divisions are internal Transnet’s business units and not corporatized.

In addition to the Legal Succession Act, Transnet is subject to the PFMA. The PFMA and the Treasury Regulations published thereunder are the primary legislation regulating the financial management and conduct of public entities such as Transnet. In this regard, the PFMA and the Treasury Regulations impose a number of restrictions on institutions to which the PFMA applies, regarding borrowing money, issuing guarantees, indemnity or security, or entering into any other transaction that binds Transnet to future financial commitments. PFMA also prescribes persons or organs of Transnet which may contract or borrow or bind to any “future financial commitment”. Transnet may not delegate these powers without the prior written approval of the Minister.

Section 56(1)(a) of the PFMA allows Transnet’s accounting authority to delegate any of its functions to its Group Chief Executive, and other officers of the company, including the authority to sign certain documents on behalf of Transnet. The accounting authority for Transnet is its Board of Directors.

Companies Act

Transnet is also subject to the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2008 (as amended from time to time) (the Companies Act). In terms of the Companies Act Transnet is defined as a State Owned Company and as such its memorandum of incorporation is deemed to have been amended to change its name to end with the expression SOC Ltd from the effective date. Transnet is subject to the enhanced accountability and transparency provisions of the Companies Act, it may, however, apply to the Minister of Trade and Industry to be totally, partially or conditionally exempted from one or more provisions of the Companies Act on the grounds that those provisions overlap or duplicate an applicable regulatory scheme established in terms of any other national legislation.

Occupational Safety and Environmental Regulation

Transnet and its operating divisions are subject to a number of safety and environmental regulations. These include the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 (OHSA), the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (NEMA), the National Railway Safety Regulator Act, 2002 (the National Railway Safety Act) and the Hazardous Substances Act, 1973 (the Hazardous Substances Act) (see “Investor Considerations - Transnet may be required to incur significant costs in order to comply with environmental laws and regulations” above).

Transnet's operating divisions employ tens of thousands of employees. Some activities carried out by these operating divisions expose employees to various health and safety risks. As a result, Transnet is required to comply with various regulations that are aimed at protecting the health and safety of its employees while at work against hazards to their health and safety arising out of or in connection with their activities at work. For example, under the OHS Act, Transnet has a duty to ensure as far as is reasonably practicable, a working environment that is safe and without risk to the health of his employees and is required to have health and safety representatives in the workplace. Transnet is also required to conduct its activities in such a manner as to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that persons other than those in his employment who may be directly affected by its activities are not thereby exposed to hazards to their health or safety. The National Railway Safety Act requires railway operators to implement and maintain adequately resourced and documented safety measures that are consistent with the South African Standard for Railway Safety Management.

Under the terms of the Hazardous Substances Act, Transnet is subject to strict requirements regulating the use, treatment, storage, burial, disposal, transport or handling of Hazardous Substances (i.e. certain wastes, pollutants, contaminants and other natural, radioactive or artificial substances (whether in the form of a solid, liquid, gas or vapour)) which is capable of causing harm or damage to the environment. The Hazardous Substances Act categorises hazardous substances into different groups.

Transnet is subject to various environmental protection laws and regulations governing, among other matters: the use of water; the management of waste and the emission and discharge of hazardous materials into the ground, air or water. Non-compliance with the applicable environmental laws and regulations by Transnet can lead to varying degrees of fines, penalties and license suspensions, as well as other claims and liabilities. For example, in terms of NEMA, Transnet is required to submit environmental assessment reports for carrying on certain activities that affect the environment. Failure to obtain an environmental permit where one is required or failure to comply with the conditions under which such permits were issued could result in stoppage directives and subject us to criminal, administrative and/or civil liabilities.

Employment Legislation

Transnet is required to comply with the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (the LRA), the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, 1997 (the BCEA) and the Employment Equity Act, 1998 (the EEA). The LRA aims to advance economic development, social justice and labour peace. The LRA further aims to give effect to and regulates the fundamental rights (including the right to food, water and social security) conferred by section 27 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996. Transnet is expected to comply with the requirements of affirmative action in employing all levels of employees. Furthermore, Transnet is required to comply with the basic conditions of employment as determined in the BCEA. As a Government owned company, Transnet is also required to fully comply with the Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment Act (BBBEE Act) and the Codes issued thereunder. Part of ensuring that Transnet complies with BBBEE Act it aims to promote economic transformation in its activities in order to enable meaningful participation of black people in the economy as required by the BBBEE Act. (See "Risk Factors – Transnet is subject to risks associated with a unionised workforce and may be adversely affected by changes in labour laws").

Transnet Pipelines

Transnet Pipelines operates, manages and maintains a network of petroleum and gas pipelines. Transnet Pipelines operates under the regulatory framework of the Petroleum Pipelines Act, the Gas Act and the National Energy Regulator Act, 2004 (the National Energy Regulator Act). The aim of the Petroleum Pipelines Act is to establish a national regulatory framework for petroleum pipelines; to establish a Petroleum Pipelines Regulatory Authority as the custodian and enforcer of the national regulatory framework and to provide for matters that are ancillary thereto. The Gas Act aims to promote the orderly development of a piped gas industry, establish a national regulatory framework; establish a National Gas Regulator as custodian and enforcer of the national regulatory framework and provide for matters that are ancillary thereto. The National Energy Regulator Act endeavours to establish a single regulator to regulate the electricity, piped gas and petroleum pipeline industries and to provide for matters that are ancillary thereto. More specifically, section 3 of the National Energy Regulator Act provides for the establishment of NERSA. Under section 4 of the National Energy Regulator Act, NERSA is mandated, inter alia, to undertake the functions of the Petroleum Pipelines Regulatory Authority and the Gas Regulator, set out in section 4 of the Petroleum Pipelines Act and the Gas Act, respectively. In achieving its mandate, NERSA assumes the role of custodian and enforcer of the national regulatory framework in the petroleum pipelines and piped gas industries.

Under the Petroleum Pipelines Act, Transnet Pipelines is required to obtain licenses for construction and operation of petroleum pipelines, loading facilities and storage facilities, which licenses are issued by NERSA. A license issued under the Petroleum Pipelines Act is valid for a period of 25 years and may be renewed.

Transnet has been granted a petroleum pipeline operating license as well as a construction license for the NMPP. In November 2009, NERSA granted Transnet a license for its gas transmission pipeline.

Transnet submitted an application to amend its petroleum pipeline operating licence to NERSA to include in its operating licence, the completed 16-inch pipelines which became operation in the first half of the 2011 calendar year. NERSA has considered this application and amended the petroleum pipeline operating licence. Two further petroleum pipeline licence amendment applications were submitted to NERSA and are being considered. These are an amendment to the operating licence to include the 24-inch trunkline and accumulation facilities and a licence to construct a new 12-inch link pipeline aimed at connecting the old 18-inch mothballed crude oil pipeline at Island View to the new 24-inch trunkline from Durban to Jameson Park. The latter forms part of the interim NMPP Coastal Terminal bypass arrangement and will be converted to carry refined products from the existing Transnet Pipelines' refined products Durban pump station. On 26 November 2010, Transnet's Board of Directors approved a revised schedule for the completion of the NMPP and also revised the total cost estimate of the project from R 15,4 billion to R 23,4 billion.

Transnet National Ports Authority

Transnet National Ports Authority derives its powers from the National Ports Act, 2005 (the Ports Act). While the Ports Act provides for the establishment of the Authority as a separate state-owned entity (sections 3 and 4), this has not taken place yet. TNPA continues to operate as a division of Transnet SOC Limited, and in terms of section 3(1)(a), is deemed to be the Authority. Discussions are currently being held with the Department of Public Enterprises to corporatise the TNPA as a wholly owned subsidiary of Transnet with Board of the Authority being appointed by the Transnet Board. The main function of the National Ports Authority is to own, manage, control and administer South African commercial ports and it owns most of the land within these ports to ensure their efficient and economic functioning. In addition, the National Ports Authority is the "operator of last resort" for ports under its jurisdiction. The activities of the National Ports Authority are monitored by the Ports Regulator to ensure that the National Ports Authority performs its functions in accordance with the Act.

National Key Points Act

Under the terms of the National Key Points Act, 1980, the Minister of Police may at any time declare any place or area a National Key Point if, in the opinion of the Minister of Police, such place or area is so important that its loss, damage, disruption or immobilisation may prejudice the country or whenever he considers it necessary or expedient for the safety of South Africa or in the public interest. On receipt of a notice of such declaration by the Minister of Police, the owner of the National Key Point concerned shall after consultation with the Minister of Police, at his own expense take steps to the satisfaction of the Minister of Police in respect of the security of the said National Key Point. Transnet is required to comply with a notice from the Minister of Police in relation to certain operations of Transnet Pipelines and TNPA, as they have been declared National Key Points. Transnet would in future, also be required to comply with any additional Minister of Police notices should any of its other operations be declared National Key Points.

Taxation

Securities Transfer Tax

The issue, transfer or redemption of the Notes will not attract securities transfer tax under the Securities Transfer Tax Act, 2007 (the STT Act, as amended from time to time) because the Notes do not constitute “securities” as defined in the STT Act (i.e. the Notes will not, themselves, constitute a share or depository receipt in a company). Any future transfer duties and/or taxes that may be introduced in respect of (or applicable to) the transfer of Notes will be for the account of holders of the Notes.

Value-Added Tax

No value-added tax (VAT) is payable on the issue or transfer of the Notes. The issue, sale or transfer of the Notes constitute “financial services” as defined in section 2 of the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991 (the VAT Act, as amended from time to time). In terms of section 2 of the VAT Act, the issue, allotment, drawing, acceptance, endorsement or transfer of ownership of a debt security as well as the buying and selling of derivatives constitute a financial service, which is exempt from VAT in terms of section 12(a) of the VAT Act. Certain Notes constitute “debt securities” as defined in section 2(2)(iii) of the VAT Act.

Commissions, fees or similar charges raised by a South African VAT vendor for the facilitation of the issue, allotment, drawing, acceptance, endorsement or transfer of ownership of Notes constitute “debt securities” as defined in section 2(2)(iii) of the VAT Act will be subject to VAT at the standard rate (currently 15% (fifteen percent)), except where the recipient is a non-resident as contemplated below.

Services (including exempt financial services) rendered to non-residents who are not in South Africa when the services are rendered, are subject to VAT at the zero rate in terms of section 11(2)(l) of the VAT Act.

Income Tax

South African resident Noteholders

Under current South African tax laws, a “resident” (as defined in section 1 of the Income Tax Act) is subject to income tax on his/her worldwide income. Accordingly, all Noteholders who are “residents” of South Africa will generally be liable to pay income tax, subject to available deductions, allowances and exemptions, on any income (including income in the form of interest) earned in respect of the Notes.

However, because the Notes may constitute a wide variety of instruments subject to different terms, it may be possible for an amount earned pursuant to the Notes to be capital in nature and not “interest” or revenue in nature, and therefore subject to capital gains tax instead of income tax. The terms of the instrument, and the statutory and/or common law rules and principles that determine whether an amount is “interest” or revenue, or capital in nature, will need to be considered. In addition to the terms of the instrument, the circumstances of the Noteholder could impact the tax treatment of amounts derived in respect of the Notes. Noteholders are advised to consult their own professional advisers as to the nature of any amount earned pursuant to the Notes, and the tax treatment of the amount.

Non-resident Noteholders

Non-residents of South Africa are subject to income tax on all amounts derived from a South African source (subject to domestic exemptions or relief in terms of an applicable double taxation treaty). Depending on the nature of the amount, different domestic rules regarding the determination of source will be applicable. Regarding the treatment of amounts earned by non-residents of South Africa that are capital in nature, see "Capital Gains Tax" below.

General

Any amount of "interest" which accrues pursuant to the Notes to resident Noteholders will be deemed to be from a South African source if that amount:

- (a) is incurred by a Person that is a South African tax resident, unless the interest is effectively connected with a foreign permanent establishment of that resident; or
- (b) is derived from the utilisation or application in South Africa by any Person of any funds or credit obtained in terms of any form of "interest-bearing arrangement".

The Notes will constitute an "interest-bearing arrangement", if the amount earned pursuant to the Notes will constitute "interest" (see definition of "interest" below). The Issuer is tax resident in South Africa as at the Programme Date. Accordingly, unless the Notes are effectively connected with a permanent establishment of the Issuer outside of South Africa, any interest paid to Noteholders will be from a South African source and subject to South African income tax unless such interest income is exempt from South African income tax under section 10(1)(h) of the Income Tax Act (see below).

Under section 10(1)(h) of the Income Tax Act, any amount of interest that is received by or that accrues to a Noteholder who, or which, is not a resident of South Africa during any year of assessment is exempt from income tax, unless:

- (a) that Person is a natural Person who was physically present in South Africa for a period exceeding 183 (one hundred and eighty three) days in aggregate during the 12 (twelve) month period preceding the date on which the interest is received by, or accrues to, that Person; or
- (b) the debt from which the interest arises is effectively connected to a permanent establishment of that Person in South Africa.

If a non-resident Noteholder of Notes does not qualify for the exemption under section 10(1)(h) of the Income Tax Act, an exemption from, or reduction of any South African income tax liability may be available under an applicable double taxation treaty. Furthermore, certain entities may be exempt from South African tax.

Purchasers are advised to consult their own professional advisers as to whether the interest income earned on the Notes will be exempt under section 10(1)(h) of the Income Tax Act or under an applicable double taxation treaty).

Under section 24J of the Income Tax Act, which applies to interest bearing arrangements, "interest" includes the gross amount of interest or any similar finance charge, as well as any discount or premium to the principal amount of a Note. Interest income which accrues (or is deemed to accrue) to a Noteholder, in accordance with section 24J of the Income Tax Act, is deemed to accrue on a day-to-day basis until that Noteholder disposes of the Note or until maturity unless an election has been made by the Noteholder, which is a company, under section 24J(9) of the Income Tax Act to make such an election, to treat its Notes as trading stock on a mark-to-market basis. This day-to-day accrual basis is determined by calculating the yield to maturity (as defined in section 24J of the Income Tax Act) and applying this rate to the capital for the relevant tax period. If on disposal or on maturity the Noteholder has included in gross income interest that the Noteholder did not actually receive, section 24J of the Income Tax Act allows the deduction of an adjusted loss. Any premium or discount is treated as interest for the purposes of the exemption under section 10(1)(h) of the Income Tax Act (see above).

Section 24JB of the Income Tax Act deals with the taxation of financial instruments for certain types of taxpayers ("covered persons"). The tax treatment of the acquisition, holding and/or disposal of the Notes may then differ from what is set out above. Noteholders should seek advice from their own professional advisors as to whether these provisions may apply to them.

To the extent the disposal of the Note gives rise to a gain or a loss, the normal principles are to be applied in determining whether such gain or loss should be subject to income tax in terms of the Income Tax Act. If a Note is disposed of on a speculative basis or as part of a scheme of profit making, the gain should generally be revenue in nature and subject to normal tax. If a Note is held with a capital intention any gain on disposal will likely be subject to the lower capital gains tax (explained in more detail below).

Capital Gains Tax

South African resident Noteholders

Capital gains and losses on the disposal of Notes made by South African residents are subject to capital gains tax, to the extent that the resident disposes of the Notes other than on a speculative basis or as part of a scheme of profit making, in which case the proceeds will be subject to income tax. Any discount or premium on acquisition which has already been treated as interest for income tax purposes under section 24J of the Income Tax Act will not be taken into account when determining any capital gain or loss. If the Notes are disposed of or redeemed prior to or on maturity, an “adjusted gain on transfer or redemption of an instrument”, or an “adjusted loss on transfer or redemption of an instrument”, as contemplated in section 24J of the Income Tax Act, must be calculated. Any adjusted gain or loss is deemed to have been incurred or to have accrued in the year of assessment in which the transfer or redemption occurred. The calculation of the adjusted gain or loss will take into account, among other things, interest which has already accrued or been incurred during the period in which the transfer or redemption occurs. In terms of section 24J(4A) of the Income Tax Act, where an adjusted loss on transfer or redemption includes interest which has been included in the income of the Noteholder, that amount qualifies as a deduction from the taxable income of the Noteholder during the year of assessment in which it is incurred and accordingly will not give rise to a capital loss.

Non-resident Noteholders

Capital gains tax under the Eighth Schedule to the Income Tax Act will not be levied in relation to Notes disposed of by a Person who is not a resident of South Africa, unless the Notes disposed of are effectively connected with a permanent establishment of that Person in South Africa during the relevant year of assessment.

Purchasers are advised to consult their own professional advisers as to whether a disposal or redemption of Notes will result in a liability to capital gains tax.

Taxation of Foreign Exchange Gains and Losses

The Notes may be denominated in a currency other than ZAR (Foreign Currency Notes). A South African tax resident who holds Foreign Currency Note and who is (1) a company; (2) a trust carrying on a trade; or (3) a natural person who holds the Notes as trading stock will be required to account for foreign exchange gains and losses on translation and realisation of the Foreign Currency Notes in accordance with the provisions of section 24I of the Income Tax Act. Such persons may be required to include in or deduct from their income any translation and realisation exchange gains or losses on the Notes.

No taxable foreign exchange gains or losses will arise for such persons where the Notes are effectively connected with a permanent establishment outside of South Africa and the functional currency of that permanent establishment is denominated in a foreign currency.

No foreign exchange gains or losses on translation and realization of the Notes in accordance with the provisions of section 24I of the Income Tax Act will arise for non-resident holders of the Notes, unless such Notes are effectively connected with a South African permanent establishment of such non-resident holder.

Withholding Tax

A final withholding tax on interest which is levied at the rate of 15% (fifteen percent) currently applies to interest payments made from a South African source to foreign Persons (i.e., non-residents), subject to certain exemptions (see below). The withholding tax on interest becomes payable at the earlier time when that interest is paid or that interest becomes due and payable. Certain exemptions are available for this withholdings tax on interest. South Africa is a party to double taxation treaties that may provide full or partial relief from the withholding tax on interest, provided that certain requirements are met.

The available exemptions apply in respect of the instrument giving rise to the interest, to the foreign Person receiving the interest, or to the Person liable for the interest (i.e., the Issuer).

Regarding the exemptions applicable in respect of the instrument, an amount of interest is exempt if it is paid to a foreign Person in terms of “listed debt”, being listed debt on a “recognised exchange”, as defined in terms of paragraph 1 of the Eighth Schedule to the Income Tax Act. The Notes may be listed on a recognised Financial Exchange. Thus, to the extent that the Notes remain listed on that exchange (and to the extent that that Financial Exchange remains a recognised Financial Exchange), any interest paid to a foreign Person in respect of the Notes will be exempt from the withholding tax on interest. If the Notes are not listed on a recognised Financial Exchange, then the interest paid to a foreign Person will not be exempt from the withholding tax on interest unless another exemption is applicable.

Regarding the exemptions applicable in respect of the foreign Person receiving the interest, an amount of interest is exempt if–

- (a) that foreign Person is a natural Person who was physically present in South Africa for a period exceeding 183 (one hundred and eight three) Days in aggregate during the 12 (twelve) month period preceding the date on which the interest is paid; or
- (b) the debt claim in respect of which that interest is paid is effectively connected with a permanent establishment of that foreign Person in South Africa, if that foreign Person is registered as a taxpayer in terms of Chapter 3 of the Tax Administration Act, 2011;
- (c) and the foreign Person submits a declaration in a prescribed form confirming their exemption to the Person liable for the payment of the interest before payment of the interest is made.

A foreign Person could also qualify for the exemption, if the foreign Person is an institution listed in section 50D(1)(d) of the Income Tax Act.

Regarding the exemptions applicable in respect of the Person liable for the interest, none of these will be applicable in respect of the Issuer. Thus, if the exemptions in respect of listed debt and foreign Persons above are not applicable, then any interest paid to a foreign Person will not be exempt from the withholding tax.

Prospective subscribers for or purchasers of Notes are advised to consult their own professional advisers to ascertain whether the abovementioned provisions may apply to them.
